IA Bridge Backwater Software, V3.0

The installation file is for version 3.0 of the IA Bridge Backwater software.

The install file is a standard windows setup file which will install the software when the user runs the file. It requires that the user have administrative access.

The install will create an entry in All Programs under the Iowa DOT program group.